As a self-taught photographer based in Oslo, Norway, I have worked across a wide range of photographic genres, including school photography, corporate portraits, real estate, advertising, documentary, and journalism. I have documented everything from local sporting events to global brand campaigns. Photography has taught me about my own willpower and the ability to overcome mental barriers to reach personal goals. Since I was 19, I have photographed for clients such as Greenpeace, Nike, Arc'teryx, Meny, Pepsi, Amnesty, DNB, Vy, Bouvet, Nocco, Subaru, and Toyota, and I have photographed Erling Haaland, Casper Ruud, Shubman Gill, Claire Prince, Alan Walker, and Girl in Red.
